

Model ABB ElectriScreen

Stewart's Large Venue ElectriScreen models are custom engineered for applications that require large-scale video projection displays

- Electronically controlled retractable screen system
- 6" diameter roller tube with compact in-tube motor
- Housing consists of aluminum and fire retardant Sintra
- Matte-black painted finish
- Tab-Guy tensioning system ensures smooth surface and eliminates edge curl
- Choose from a variety of Stewart's front projection materials
- Black-drop/overscan border above image*
- Matte-black overscan borders on sides and bottom
- Ceiling mount, recessed, or stage flown
- 3-button low voltage wall switch (LVC) controls screen
- Available in production sizes up to 14 feet high by 18 feet 3 inches wide (Material OD)